

Foteini Kougioumoutzaki is Lecturer of Sociology and Sociology of Education at the Education Department of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She has done research and published on methodology on social sciences teaching and recontextualization, education and gender, human rights education, university graduates and the labour market, construction and implementation of an educational curriculum.

Publications (selected)

- “Women and Tertiary Education in Greece since the founding of the first university to date: statistics and interpretations” Kalamatianou, Kougioumoutzaki & Belogiannis, in Family, Gender and Migration in Modern Greece, Athens, Gutenberg, (2014).
- “Human Rights Education-State of the Art”, “Criminal Justice agencies’ personnel views regarding the discourse and deficiencies of the respective educational systems - Key findings”, “Evaluation of the training programmes”, Kougioumoutzaki, F., in Criminal Justice System Personnel-Education and Training. What about Fundamental Rights?. A European Typology. European Commission Programme ‘Fundamental Rights and Citizenship’ –DG Justice, Freedom and Security, (2013).
- “Aspects of employment of Panteion university graduates: Job satisfaction”, Kalamatianou & Kougioumoutzaki, in Sociology and Social Transformations in Modern Greece Athens, Gutenberg, (2013).
- “Employment Status and Job-Studies Relevance of Social Science Graduates: The Experience from a Greek Public University”, Kalamatianou & Kougioumoutzaki. International Journal of Economic Sciences and Applied Research IJECAR, 5(1), (2012).
- «The “Adventures” of the Sociology Course in Greek Secondary Education». Kougioumoutzaki, F., The American Sociologist, Vol. 38, Number 2, pp.191-210., (2007).